

Tom Hood

Singer-songwriter · Tampa Bay, Florida

Blues · Rock · Country · Island-flavored originals

Performing since 1976 · tomhoodmusic.com

Bio

Tom Hood is a performing singer-songwriter based in Tampa Bay, Florida, with a blend of blues, rock, country and island-flavored compositions. He has been writing and performing since 1976. Tom performs solo and with The Tropical Sons and The Burnt Fuses in Florida, and with The Trailmen and The Happy Campers in New York. He is also known for his work with Lex & Hood, The Unknown Gentlemen and Empty Suits. He sings lead and plays guitar, ukulele, harmonica and bass.

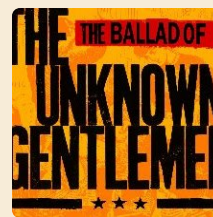

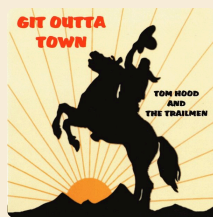

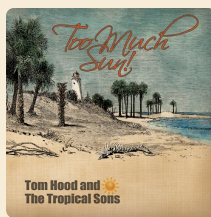

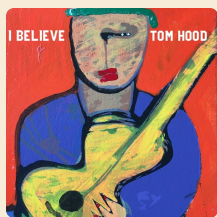

Highlights

- BMI writer with 200+ original songs
- Owns all rights, so licensing is one stop
- Kala Brand Ambassador
- President, Tampa Bay Ukulele Society
- Available for festivals, private parties and corporate events

Recent releases

- This Dog Needs a Bone (2026)
- Living off the Land (2026)
- Running Out of Time (2026)
- Living a Lie
- Serpent · Don't Say A Word · It's Understood · Hands of Time

Albums

Listen & follow

Spotify: Tom Hood · YouTube: youtube.com/channel/UCN1i16APQM6zUk2WpO2IhA · Instagram & TikTok: @thetomhood · X: @TomHoodMusic1 · Facebook: /tomhoodmusic1

Booking · Press · Sync licensing: media@tomhoodmusic.com